CleanCraft Midwest Tour (FREE EVENT)

When: Saturday, March 21st (11am - 3pm)

Where: Holiday Inn Express (Meeting Room)

5151 South East St. Indianapolis, IN 46227

CleanCraft is touring the Midwest in 2015. Next stop will be in the Indianapolis area. Now is your chance to take a look at our residential & light commercial air duct cleaning systems. Demo both the SpinDuct & SpinVax 1000XT. We have proven results of HVAC/R companies all over the country using our systems and adding tremendous value to their businesses. Many HVAC/R companies add "Indoor Air Quality" to their product offering, but miss the vital service that goes along with it... air duct cleaning! We have the equipment, training, and marketing help you need to easily add this great service to your business. Don't miss this FREE event. This is an open house type event. So, you can stop by anytime during the event. However, you must register! Give us a call or sign-up online.

SpinDuct

Why Add Air Duct Cleaning?

How many customers have asked you about air duct cleaning? Over the last few years, air duct cleaning has become tremendously popular. Allergy doctors, Indoor Air Specialists, and other industry professionals are recommending air duct cleaning to many homeowners. The market is huge. Is your company taking advantage of this growing market? If not, why? Will your competitor capitalize on your opportunities? Air duct cleaning opens up the door for maintenance contracts, increased customer interactions, and obviously greater revenues.

SpinVax

Why choose us?

CleanCraft and CWS-Direct (division of CleanCraft) have been selling air duct cleaning equipment since 2001. We have used and tested many of the systems out there. There are no systems that compare to the technology & features of the SpinDuct & SpinVax 1000XT. Watch the online videos and check out the websites to see why HVAC contractors choose us. Plus, we even help you out with Customer Selling Videos and even a Mobile App!
